

Billy Class Term 5 - Traditional Tales.

Home Learning Activities.

Literacy

Read or listen to the stories: Little Red Riding Hood, The Gingerbread Man, The Three Little Pigs and The Little Red Hen. You can find lots of them on YouTube!

<https://tpet.co.uk/downloads/little-red-riding-hood-word-mat/> Here you can find a word mat to help you write the story of The Little Red Riding Hood. You could make your own book!

Maths

Can you draw the main characters from the stories and cut them out? Place them in order from shortest to tallest!

<https://www.earlylearninghq.org.uk/latest-resources/gingerbread-man-bingo/> Here you can download and print Gingerbread Man bingo cards to play!

Physical Development

Can you build a house for Grandma from The Little Red Riding Hood using bricks or junk modelling? Take a picture of it and send it to us on Purple Mash!

<https://teachingwithchildrensbooks.com/little-red-riding-hood-teaching-ideas/> Shows you how to make a shoebox house!

Personal, Social & Emotional

How does each character in the story feel? Draw a picture to show how they are feeling and write a label or sentence to go with it.

Understanding the World

Talk about 'stranger danger' with a grown-up at home. Should Little Red Riding Hood speak to the Wolf? Why? What would you do? Can you make puppets to show what she should have done?

<https://www.earlylearninghq.org.uk/stories/red-riding-hood/> For printable puppets to stick on lolly-sticks!

Expressive Art and Design

Can you make gingerbread men biscuits and decorate with icing?

Can you collage a picture of the little red hen or another of your favourite characters using tissue paper? You could paint a picture of them too!

Communication and Language

Can you re-tell the stories to a grown up at home or a brother or sister if you have one?

<https://www.holycrossliverpool.co.uk/the-three-little-pigs/> You can see a video here of a class using 'Talk for Writing' to re-tell the story of The Three Little Pigs. They use actions to help them remember the story!